
The Big Butler Fair

Always Over

P.O. Box 517 Prospect, PA 16052

www.bigbutlerfair.com

Press Release

The Big Butler Fair is pleased to announce the 2018 Fair Queen, Amelia Brown. She is the 17-year-old daughter of Sharon and Jarod Brown of Karns City. The fall, she will be a Senior at Moniteau High School. She earned a cash award for “Best Speech” given by the Woman's Club of Mars.

At a pageant held at the Atrium, near Prospect, 3 young ladies vied for the crown. The competition included a written essay, interview, and a persuasive speech on “Why you should come to my Fair” including how our fair impacts our community. Kayley Baker, daughter of Kim and Bill Baker of Butler, was crowned Butler Fair Princess. Jillian Ranko, daughter of Jacqui and Jim Ranko of Butler was named Butler Fair Ambassador..

The 2016 Butler Fair Queen, Shirlann Harmon, pageant crowned her successor. Judges for the event were Rebecca Reeb and Tracy Heinlein.

As 2018 Butler Fair Queen, Ameila Brown, will represent the Fair at various community events and parades. She will also reign over activities during the 163st Big Butler Fair, June 29 – July 7.

A complete schedule is offered on the web at www.bigbutlerfair.com. Come celebrate with us!

Contact Information:

PR Chair/Pageant Director, - Anna Flick at 724-841-4136

Butler Fair Queen Coordinator - Judy Kennedy – 724-625-1977 or cell at 724-290-3677